The piece is of inand Hading, to say nothing of many of our own actresses, in the part of Claire it is unsatisfactory to witness Mrs. Kendal's conventionalism. Mr. Kendal is seen to much better advantage than his wife in this play, and the natural coldness and stridency of his voice does not seem out of place in the character of Philipe Derblay. The insufficiency of the supporting company was even more manifest than on the previous night.

production is said to be the greatest ever given a comic opers in this country. The costumes and the scenery are gorgeous in coloring and most effective in design. The company presenting the opera is unquestionably a strong one, as may be seen by the following cast of characters: Muley Hassan, a sailor shipwrecked near the coast of Morocco, Digby Bell; Farina, a Circassian professional beauty. Marion Manola; Alpaca, a Tartar, formerly wife of Muley Hassan, now gueen of the sultan's harem. UNCLE ISAAC.-Next week Harris' Bijou Uncle Isaac.—Next week Harris Bijou Theater will present the distinguished comedian. Max Fehrmann, in his recent success, "Uncle Isaac." The play deals with a phase of human nature that is full of dramatic material, pletely neglected by play writers. It is that of the American Hebrew, a man of real flesh and blood, whose heart beats in response to the sufferings of his fellow man, but whose business test is always a man of the sufferings of his fellow man, but whose business test is always a man of the suffering test is always a man of the suffering test is always a man of the suffering test in the furnace room and had evidently been business to the fire started in the furnace room. ness tact is always awake to protect his interests and maintain his independence. The character as presented by Mr. Fehrmann is said to be full of humor and wit without ever descending to the level of descending to the level of a caricature. Mr. Fehrmann is a violinist, a composer and a vocalist. The company includes a remarkable array of talents, and singing and dancing are given plentifully. The company is made up of people who had given evidence of their ability to do what was required before they was to do what was required before they were chosen. The performance should therefore possess marked artistic merit in every respect. "THE PATROL."—The attraction next week at Kernan's Lyceum Theater is "The Patrol," by Scott Marble, who made a thorough study of the celebrated Suell murder and built up this play on a plot that absorbs as much interest as the original tragedy. A. H. Simon's company is pronounced fully competent to interpret the lines intelligently, and with ample scenic and mechanical effects, and the two beautiful horses, known as "The White Patrol," give promise of a realistic and satisfactory producpromise of a rematic and satisfactory produc-tion. These horses come on the stage at break-neck speed. They dash to the rescue of Police Capt. Hardy, struggling with Detective Case, who is following an opposite clue of the murder of Enos Bond, and vividly illustrate the efficacy of the police patrol system. The play contains many exciting incidents of police life, strong situations and thrilling climaxes. In the cast are Chas. Chappelle, Virginia Nelson, Alice Fisher, Herbert U. Jones, Eddie Giguere and

BABY CURED OF ECZEMA.

MOTHER'S AND MINISTER'S TESTIMONY HEAD MASS OF PUTREFACTION. DOC-TOR FAILS. CURED IN QUICK TIME BY CUTICURA.

I deem it my duty to inform you of the wonder'ul cure of e zema which CUTIOURA REMEDIES brought upon our little baby, three months old. When about two and one-half months old, the whole of its ittle head became one mass of putrefaction, over which we became one mass of putrefaction, over which we became very much alarmed, as the medi ine prescribed by our physician only seemed to aggravate and increase the intense pain the little thing seemed to be in. We were utterly at a loss to know what to do, as the physician seemed to have exhausted all efforts to give relief. But through the recommendation of Rev. J. G. Ahern, pastor of Brooks Circust M. E. Church Society, we were induced to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after a few days' application we were astonished as well as de ighted over the rewe were astonished as well as de ighted over the re-sult. We continued the use of the medicine according we commund the use of the heatene according to direction, and after a few weeks the little fellow was entirely cured, with no traces of the disease left. Many thanks for this wonderful cure. Mrs. JOHN HOLSTEIN, Quitman, Ga.

It gives me great pleasure to testify to the facts con-tained in Mrs. John Ho stein's testimonial concerning the cure of her little baby. When I saw it I did not th nk it possible for it to live. I, however, recon mended CUTICURA, knowing that if a cure was possible, CUTICURA REMEDIES would do it. My more sanguine expectation cuiminated in a perfect cure.
